

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

LA CAGE AUX FOLLES SET TO LIGHT UP THE VICTORIA THEATRE!

3 January 2017 – Come April 2017, WILD RICE will bring the best of Broadway to the Victoria Theatre with its brand-new production of La Cage Aux Folles.

Dazzling in wit and spectacle, this award-winning musical charmed audiences and critics alike when it first played at the Esplanade Theatre in 2012. The Straits Times described La Cage Aux Folles as a show “oozing unabashed joy, a passion for life and an unerring belief that the best of times is now”.

In 2013, La Cage Aux Folles took home the Straits Times Life! Theatre Award for Production of the Year (Readers’ Choice). It was also nominated for Production of the Year, Best Actor (Ivan Heng) and Best Costume Design (Frederick Lee).

“The message of La Cage Aux Folles is timeless and one that we need more than ever today,” explains Glen Goei, Associate Artistic Director of WILD RICE, who is returning to helm this production. “In these strange and turbulent times we live in, La Cage reminds us of the value of embracing diversity and seeing things from a different perspective.”

To re-imagine La Cage Aux Folles for an increasingly divided world, Goei has assembled a crack team of designers who are among the very best Singapore’s theatre scene has to offer. The show will feature music direction by Elaine Chan, choreography by Lisa Keegan, sets by Eucien Chia, lighting by Mac Chan, costumes by Frederick Lee, hair by Ashley Lim and make-up by The Make Up Room.

Ivan Heng, Artistic Director of WILD RICE, will be leading the company of La Cage Aux Folles in the lead role of Albin – a family man by day who transforms into Zaza, a glittering cabaret star, by night.

He is thrilled to have the opportunity to revisit one of the most electric and fascinating characters in all of musical theatre.

“Albin’s story in La Cage Aux Folles is so powerful because it resonates with everyone,” he explains. “It’s about the sacrifices made in the name of family and unconditional love – themes familiar with parents and children all over the world!”

Playing the lead role of George opposite Heng will be Sean Ghazi, one of Malaysia’s brightest stars. After winning the Singapore Fame Awards in 1995, Sean has performed all over the world, from America to London and Germany, and has sung with top international acts such as Pink Martini and Elaine Paige. La Cage Aux Folles marks his return to Singapore theatre after 19 years.

Providing much of the show’s comic relief are some of the region’s best performers, including veteran actors like Hossan Leong, Darius Tan, Jo Tan and Dwayne Lau; and promising talents such as Aaron Khaled, Frances Lee, Mae Elliessa and Erwin Shah Ismail. Eight incredible dancers will transform into Les Cagelles – a chorus line of tall, gorgeous showgirls who will set the stage alight with their singing and dancing.

Close to 35 years since it premiered on Broadway, La Cage Aux Folles is as relevant today as it ever was with its themes of family, love, acceptance and being true to oneself. Featuring Harvey Fierstein's sparkling script and Jerry Herman's classic songs (including I Am What I Am and The Best of Times), WILD RICE's unmissable production of La Cage Aux Folles will demonstrate precisely why the show remains a musical comedy classic.

Tickets to La Cage Aux Folles go on sale via SISTIC on 16 January 2017. Patrons are encouraged to purchase tickets promptly so as to take full advantage of a brand-new scheme that incentivises early booking.

REVIEWS

“... an entire Jurong Bird Park’s worth of exotic feathers in this show eventually peel back to reveal a strong, beating heart, melding unforced sweetness with a pointed political statement.”

SPH The Straits Times

“Electric, feisty, and fun, La Cage Aux Folles is an entertaining and heart-warming musical with unforgettable performances, fine actors, and music that will have you humming for days. Under all the sequins and corsets, La Cage Aux Folles is a musical with a big heart, and we cannot recommend it highly enough.”

InSing.com

“What stood out... were family, filial piety and acceptance – themes that would resonate with all audiences. La Cage makes you re-think about the sacrifices parents make for a child and accepting people for who they are – feather boas and all.”

AsiaOne

“La Cage Aux Folles dazzles not just through its spectacular sets, lights, costumes and songs, but also through a heart-warming story about families, love and acceptance that inspires thought and reflection in so many ways.”

Yahoo! Singapore

“With its affirming message set in ways that are not clichéd, it was no wonder the cast got a standing ovation from nearly the entire audience during its curtain call. You will too, seeing how such a seemingly antiquated play will touch you and make you want to scream, ‘Hey world, I am what I am!’”

APPENDIX I ABOUT LA CAGE AUX FOLLES

La Cage Aux Folles is an award-winning musical with a book by Harvey Fierstein and music and lyrics by Jerry Herman. Based on Jean Poiret's 1973 play of the same name (which also inspired Hollywood film The Birdcage), La Cage Aux Folles first opened on Broadway in 1983 to resounding critical acclaim.

Over three decades, the show has enjoyed considerable success on Broadway. The landmark first production received nine Tony Award nominations and won six awards, including Best Musical, Best Score and Best Book. The musical has since been revived twice on Broadway – in 2004 and 2010 – and won the Tony Award for Best Revival of a Musical both times. In total, La Cage Aux Folles has won 11 Tony Awards over its three Broadway productions.

WILD RICE's spectacular production of La Cage Aux Folles in 2012 was a hit with audiences and critics alike. In relocating the story to Singapore, director Glen Goei found new meaning and fresh life in this heartwarming tale of unconditional love and family values.

Come April 2017, WILD RICE will once again re-imagine La Cage Aux Folles for a new generation of audiences. Iconic songs like I Am What I Am and The Best of Times will soar through the Victoria Theatre as this beloved musical encourages one and all to celebrate the fact that life's not worth a damn, 'til you can say, "I am what I am!"

APPENDIX V ABOUT WILD RICE

WILD RICE was founded in 2000 by Ivan Heng, an internationally acclaimed and award-winning theatre practitioner, and is recognised today as one of Singapore's leading professional theatre companies.

Its mission is to provide an open forum for the shared experience of theatre: celebrating our diversity, reflecting on the problems and possibilities of our times, and presenting productions that inspire, challenge and entertain.

A commitment to the highest standards informs every aspect of WILD RICE's creative work, which is first and foremost a celebration of Singapore's theatrical talent. By producing and touring productions that are distinctively local in flavour and yet universal in vision and concerns, the company creates memorable experiences for audiences in Singapore and across the world.

The company's exciting and varied programming for the main stage includes:

- New and original works;
- New productions of the Singapore repertoire; and
- New interpretations of world classics.

The company's mission to build a theatre culture also extends to the wider community through the following divisions:

- FIRST STAGE!, a project that nurtures young talents from the ages of 5 to 12; and
- young & WILD, which identifies and develops Singapore's young theatre professionals.

WILD RICE is committed to touring its shows internationally to raise the profile of Singapore theatre, to create an international awareness of its unique productions, and to engage its artists and collaborators in creative dialogues with the international arts community. Its distinctively Singaporean productions have won great acclaim in major international arts festivals in Australia, Canada, Hong Kong, Macau, Malaysia, New Zealand and Russia.

In August 2006, WILD RICE presented the inaugural Singapore Theatre Festival, an event dedicated to celebrating contemporary Singaporean theatre through the development and presentation of new and original local writing. Over 10 years and five editions, the Festival has collaborated with local theatre companies and artists to present 32 productions, including 19 world premieres, of new local writing. In 2013, the Festival launched 'In The Spotlight' to present a season dedicated to the works of a single local playwright. The Festival has been hailed as "the main event in the world of the arts" (SPH The Straits Times) and the "Blockbuster Event of the Year" (TODAY).
